Negro Suffrage.

Mr. INGALLS recently repeated what he had previously said in the United States Senate-that negro suffrage was a failure. The northern Republican papers do not hesitate to make statements which, if true, go to show that Mr. INGALLS is right in his opinion. They represent the negro majority in such States as Mississippi and South Carolina to be wholly in the power of the white minority. They do not mean to be so understood, but nevertheless they say by implication that the negroes, like women and children, ought to be forbidden to vote; because they cannot carry into exe. cution the laws they pass, just as women and children could not enforce a law in a community in which all the men were opposed to its execution. What else can the Chicago Mail mean by talking as follows:

"The southerners are willing, when the subject of representation is before Con-gress, to have the negro vote and the negro population figure for all they are worth. Every negro vote in the South is an offset to a white vote in the North. He is entitled to the sames hare of representation as the white citizen. He secures the repre-sentation, but when that is accomplished the southern politicians are done with him. He is good enough to form a part of the basis of representation but he cannot vote except as his white masters dictate. He dare not exercise the right of free suffrage if he could; he couldn't if he would."

Notice the outcropping of race prejudice in the remark that "every negro vote in the South is an offset to a white vote in the North." Why shouldn't a negro vote in the South offset a white vote in the North? We need not answer. It is not the south. era whites who talk as if the negro ough to be deprived of the right to vote. It is not Democratic whites, North or South, who thus talk, but Republican whites. What can MURAT HALSTEAD mean by the following twaddle except that the right of suffrage ought to be taken from the negroes? He says:

"We may be told there is no opposition to the Democrats in Georgia. Well, why is there no opposition? Because it is not permitted! Because the colored citizens are deliberately, notoriously, systematically distranchished. The pretence that they are allowed their constitutional rights is so brotally false that it is seidom heard of any more. What principle that can be avowed has the Democratic party that would account for the peculiar political condition of Georgia? None whatever. None ca be named. The Democratic party gets to State of Georgia because it was engaged in State of Georga because it was engaged in the crime of rebellion and responsible for the slaughter of the war. Georgia is solid for the old Confederacy and all the doctrines and sympathies and all-mosities that led to the war. With the bloody treason of State's rights as superior to national authority behind them, vicious and monstrous and most threatening, the South is made more solid than the empire of Russia. The southern Confederacy was troubled with the occasional squirming of the States, but the solid South is not trou-bled in that way. There is not a possibility of breaking this solidity until it is crushed by the united power of the North. The solid South must be defeated politically as the southern Confederacy was crushed by force of arms."

Was there ever a more significant many festation of impotent malice? Doomed to death, the snake of sectionalism bites itself and poisons its own blood. HALSTEAD is the leading SHERMAN man in the United States. He it is that has had intrusted to him the smoothing of the way for John SHERMAN to secure the next Republican nomination for President of the United States. It is the champion of MAHONE's favorite candidate that thus libels people of the South. WHITELAW REID leads the BLAINE forces. MURAT HALSTEAD leads the SHERMAN forces, and among his followers that the negroes are defrauded of the right | teaching the young idea how to shoot. to vote? Does he endorse the SHERMAN. HALSTEAD programme? Is he willing to go into the fall campaign as the Virginia leader of the forces led by HALSTEAD-the SHERMAN gang?

Blaine vs. Sherman.

Mr. SHERMAN has been knocked out on the first round. MAHONE'S favorite must give way to the favorite of Parsons and the other old, genuine original Republicans of Virginia. We have always helped BLAINE all we could up to the time of the meeting of the Republican National Convention. In 1876, in 1880, and in 1884 we did so, and we are going to do it again this time.

What do we mean by saying that SHER-MAN was knocked out on the first round? Why this: that on the same day SHERMAN made his recent speech before the Republi, can members of the Illinois Legislature the St. Louis Globe-Democrat interviewed nine. ty of the members aforesaid and found that forty-six of them were for BLAINE, and only nineteen for SHERMAN. (Whom the others prefer, we do not know ) Alas, for Shen-

Again: In New York city the Republican club on Wednesday adopted, with only one dissenting voice, a report which contains the following words :

"A conference with the leaders of the Lish-Americans who voted for Blaine in 1884 discloses that they will again vote for him, and prefer his nomination to that of

This was done after a member had moved to strike out "the attempt to boom Mr. BLAINE." One gentleman explained that the report simply stated facts, and that the pames of FORAKER and SHERMAN were suggested to the Irish leaders, who repiled emphatically that they preferred Mr. BLAINE as the only man who had excited the disapproval of their English enemies. They did not object to FORAKKE and SHERMAN, but they did prefer BLAINE.

These two straws show which way the Republican nomitating winds blow, and are well calculated to cool the ardor of Ma-HONE in behalf of the SHERMAN-and-MAHONE Internal Taxes. The Nashville American does not mine matters in dealing with the question of abolishing internal taxes. It says:

"The one great and abiding sin of the Republican party is its increasing effort towards centralization, and if the Democratic party has a mission on this earth it is to proicet the sovereignty of the States and individual right to have the General Government run for the good of the greatest number, and by that is meant the people. The first great rebuke the Democratic element
the country has to administer to its te abolishing internal taxes. It says:

nacious opponent is the utter and irrevoca-ble abolition of the internal revenue law, as far as the General Government his to do with it. This law is an outrageous vio-lation of the organization of Stites, and were it simply upon this ground alone ev-ery American should vote it out of exist-ence. Begin now while there is time to supply this question; and then make no s'udy this question; and theu make un yeur prin ary and national conventions of men who will squarely face the internal revenue law and force it, with its attendant abominations, out of existence. This law has furnished many excuses for many other violations of our democratic form of gov-ernment by the advocates of agrandize-ment of the Federal Government."

The suggestions with which the American closes its article are well worthy of consideration.

Mr. Barbour-A Convention. The unbounded confidence which the people of Virginia bave in the wisdom of ment, his pure patriotism, and the clear.

Mr. Bannoun is due to his sound judgeness of his mental vision. The Norfolk Landmark speaks for a targe number of our recople when it says : WHERE HE LEADS WE WILL FOLLOW ,-

Our distinguished friend Mr. Barbour is quoted as being in favor of a State convention. We have the highest respect for any opinion that may be entertained by him, and, assuming that he is correctly quoted, we feel certain that be must have good reasons for the conclusion he has reached. Not have the reasons we can only say that knowing the reasons, we can only say that we still see danger in the possible attempt engraft extreme measures on the pariy's profession of domestic faith, and this we would avoid it we could. We fear a possible division of our people (in-convention) on details of the debt question, and can see no good result that can be brought about. We are agreed on the mater as we stand. Opposition to an honest etilement, where it exists, is a matter now of individual opinion, but in a convention aggressive men might organize a factiou. If Mr. Berbour, however, is willing to co-counter this danger we are willing to follow bim; but we must all bear in mind that there are great numbers of men in the Democracie party who will not unite in any coice, intended further to cut down the poiley intended further to cut down the claims of those who are the legitimate cre-ditors of the State.

We have heard that the members of the State Central Committee were unanimous in ordering a convention to be called. They are men of good judgment. Nevertheless, to satisfy Brother Hore and other good Democrats, Mr. BARBOUR might well invite the members of that committee to meet here next Wednesday with the Executive Committee, the latter committee to take no action until the former committee had again come to a vote as to whether a convention should be called or not.

Important, if True.

The Ohio State Journal says that "Jours SHERMAN has had the boldness to denounce the meanest political crime, the most persistent disbonesty and unformess, and the most gigantic fraud ever perpetrated," Evidently the Onio State Journal has gotten hold of an exclusive piece of news, When did Joun SHERMAN take to the stool of repentance and denounce the stealing of the electoral vote of Louisiana in order to make HAYES President? Our western contemperary should give the particulars of this remarkable case of self-accusation.

Mr. Tucker was born in 1823, and Mr. LAMAR in 1825, but Mr. TUCKER is a much vonneer man than Mr. LAMAR if age be nessured by physical ability to perform the duties of the office of Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. HAMMOND, of Georgia, was born in 1833 He is as old a man as Mr. CLEVELAND ought to appoint unless he desires the next Republican President to have the appointment of the successor of his appointee. Mr. George, of Mississippi, who stands a good chance to get the appointment, was born in 1826. He is too old. ## A Precedent.

To the Editor of the Dispatch: You suggest that Judge Bond shall " issu ndamus compelling the State authori a mandamus compening the State authorities to levy a tax heavy enough to pay all the interest on the public debt."

That is just what he did in South Carolina. The fact will be found fully set forth in Hagood vs. Sothern, 117 United States Reports, 53, and a résumé and comment thereon will be found in the Richmond Dispatch of August 29, 1886. A law of the State ordered that he Comptroller-General should levy a tax in addition to other taxation to be exclusively used in re-tiring certain certificates of indebted-ness which were made receivable for taxes, like our coupons. Subsequently the Legislature forbade the Comptroller to levy the tax and forbade the receipt of the certificates of indebtedness for taxes. Thereupon a railroad—one of the patriotic sort, like the Baltimere and Ohio-brought suit in Judge Bond's court asking for a specific enforcement of the repealed law; and that scrupulous Judge ordered the treasurers to receive the certificates for taxes, enjoined them from selling property taxes, enjoined them from seiling property to enforce the payment of taxes, and ordered the Comptroller to levy the tax.

All which was reversed by the Supreme Court of the United States, in an opinion written by that model judge and pink of consistency, Mr. Justice Matthews, the author of the directly conflicting opinion of Poindexter vs. Greenbow.

So that it will be seen that it would be no new stretch of power for Judge Bond no new stretch of power for Judge Bond to make a decree levying taxes and enjoin-

I only wish he would try something of the kind in Virginia, and make the people still more determined than they are now to settle their debt, if they one any, in their own way and in defiance of him and his decrees and injunctions.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] EMORY AND HENRY COLLEGE, VA., ? June 8, 1887.

This (Wednesday) was the closing day of the remi-centennial commencement of Emory and Henry College. The attendance was larger at all the exercises than at any time since the war. Several hundred of the former students were present, repreof the former students were present, representing nearly all of the southern States, The most prominent feature of the day was the address of Judge H. H. Ingersoll, of Knoxville, Team, before the Calliopean and Hermesian literary societies. Judge Ingersoll is an M. A. of Yale. For awhile he was superintendent of schools for the State of Ohio. He has been on the Suprema Court bench of Tennessee, and is one of the coming men of the South. He gave the young men advice looking to the care of their physical training and then with reference to the books they should read, recommending especially Solomon, Shakspeare, mending especially Solomon, Shakspeare, and Robert Burns.

The students of the present year pre-sented through their spokeman, Mr. Joseph B. The Sermon of Dr. Armitage to the Graduates-The Orations and the Valedictory. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

WAKE FOREST, N. C., June 9.-The sermon last night by Rev. Dr. Thomas Armimon hast higher by her. Fr. Tourist Xin tage, of New York, to the graduating class was well received by a great crowd of lis-teners. He discussed the danger of allow-ing others to take the crowns which were mercifully intended for us, and made a striking appeal to the young men to use all the energy, earnestness, and perseverance necessary to insure the attainment of all the crowns within their reach.

This morning the salutatorian of the class, J. B. Carlyle, of Robeson county, had the privilege of welcoming another large and brilliant assemblage to the beautiful commencement hall, and he did it to poetreal measures that elicited enthusiastic pplause. Orations followed in the followapplause. Oralions toilowed in the following order: E. J. Justice, of Rutherfordion, on "The Power of Truth"; J. M. Briason, of Newberne, on "The Progress of Democratic Idens"; E. F. Tatum, of Davic county, on "Words"; D. O. McCallers, of Clayton, on "Oliver Cromwell"; H. E.
Copple, of Davidson county, on "Perseverance."

In order that the audience might not be wearied Messrs, B. R. Browning, of Littleton; F. E. Cheek, of Durham; J. J. Lane, of Marthoro' county, S. C.; F. H. Mianning, of Gates county; W. J. Matthews, of Gates county; W. S. Olive, of Apex; H. S. Pocket, of Durham; D. A. Hillyard, of Grarville county; L. E. Pruett, of Cleveland county; L. L. Vann, of Wake Forest; and W. F. Watson, of Carthage, were excused from delivering their orations, and Walter P. Stradley, of Oxford, was called forward to deliver the valedictory. Mr. Ayers.

I notice in the Whig of this (Thursday) morning an editorial, in which, whilst the editor speaks of Mr. Ayers's course in disregarding the logunation of Judge Bond ordering him not to bring suit under "the coupon-crusher" as "a very bold step," he yet appears, if I construe him correctly, to him that the proper thing to do was to move to dissolve the injunction after ten days' notice, and then if Judge Bond refused to grant the motion to take the matter up to the Supreme Court of the United States for review.

but that is when there is jurisdiction of the color of it. In this case there is no jurisdiction whatever; it is a clear usurpation by Judge Bond, and the proper course for the officers concerned is not only to disregard it, but to denounce it in terms of contempt and abhorrence.
